Dear [Mentor's Last Name],

I have been following your work at [Company Name] for some time, and I am particularly inspired by your recent [mention a specific collection, project, or article]. Your approach to [mention a specific skill like sustainable sourcing, creative direction, or brand positioning] aligns perfectly with my professional aspirations.

I am currently a [Current Status: student/junior designer/marketing assistant] with a focus on [Your Niche]. As I look to navigate the complexities of the fashion industry, I am seeking guidance from a professional whose career path I deeply admire. I am writing to respectfully ask if you would consider acting as a mentor to me.

Specifically, I am eager to learn more about your perspective on [Specific Topic 1] and [Specific Topic 2]. I understand your time is incredibly valuable, and I am looking for a commitment as brief as a [Time Period, e.g., 30-minute monthly coffee or quarterly call].

I have attached my portfolio/resume for your review. Thank you for your time and for the influence you have already had on my creative outlook through your work.

Sincerely,

[Your Signature]
