To the [Network Name/Hiring Committee] Team,

As a UX Designer focused on [Your Specialization, e.g., accessible design or rapid prototyping], I am writing to express my interest in joining the [Network Name] collaborative. I have long admired your collective's approach to [mention a specific project or network value], and I am eager to contribute my skills to your upcoming cross-functional initiatives.

Throughout my career, I have prioritized collaborative problem-solving. In my previous role at [Previous Company/Studio], I spearheaded a design system overhaul that required constant alignment with [Stakeholders, e.g., engineering and product marketing]. I believe my ability to bridge the gap between creative vision and technical constraints aligns perfectly with the multi-disciplinary nature of your network.

I am particularly drawn to your current focus on [Specific Interest Area]. My experience in [Specific Skill, e.g., user research or interaction design] has taught me that the best user experiences are born from diverse perspectives. I am looking for a community where I can both offer my expertise and learn from other specialists to push the boundaries of digital products.

I have attached my portfolio, which highlights my process from discovery to high-fidelity delivery. I look forward to the possibility of discussing how my design philosophy matches the mission of [Network Name].

Best regards,
