Dear [Hiring Manager Name],

I am writing to express my interest in the Remote UX Designer position at [Company Name]. As a designer with [Number] years of experience specializing in [Specific Niche or Industry], I have developed a workflow specifically tailored for distributed teams and high-impact digital product design.

My approach to UX is rooted in [mention a core philosophy, e.g., user-centric research or data-driven iteration]. During my time at [Previous Company/Project], I led the design for [Project Name], which resulted in a [Percentage/Metric] improvement in [KPI]. I am proficient in collaborative tools such as Figma, FigJam, and Jira, ensuring seamless handoffs between design and engineering in an asynchronous environment.

I am particularly drawn to [Company Name] because of your commitment to [mention a company value or specific product feature]. Working remotely has allowed me to hone my communication skills and self-management, qualities I believe are essential for contributing effectively to your design team from day one.

Thank you for your time and for considering my application. I have attached my portfolio, which includes case studies detailing my process from discovery to high-fidelity prototyping. I look forward to the possibility of discussing how my design background can support [Company Name]'s goals.

Best regards,
