RE: [JOB TITLE / ART THERAPY POSITION]

Dear [Hiring Manager Name],

[Introduction: State your interest in the role and briefly acknowledge your background in fine arts. Express your transition into the therapeutic space, highlighting your specific interest in this organization's mission.]

[The Pivot: Explain how your mastery of visual language, medium selection, and the creative process translates into clinical or community-based support. Mention your understanding of the transformative power of art and your commitment to patient-centered care.]

[Specific Expertise: Detail your experience with specific populations or creative modalities. Highlight transferable skills such as observational sensitivity, empathy, studio management, or collaborative projects that mirror therapeutic environments.]

[Closing: Reiterate your unique perspective as a professional artist entering the therapy field and your readiness to contribute to the wellness of your clients through creative intervention.]

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
