Dear [Hiring Manager Name],

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Physical Therapist - Industrial Rehabilitation Specialist position at [Company Name]. As a licensed Physical Therapist with [Number] years of experience specializing in occupational health and ergonomics, I am eager to apply my expertise in injury prevention and return-to-work programming to your clinical team.

Throughout my career, I have focused on bridging the gap between clinical rehabilitation and industrial site requirements. My background includes performing comprehensive Functional Capacity Evaluations (FCEs), developing Work Hardening/Work Conditioning programs, and conducting detailed job site analyses. I have a proven track record of reducing lost-time days by implementing evidence-based protocols tailored to the physical demands of specific labor sectors.

At my current position with [Current/Previous Employer], I successfully [mention a specific achievement, e.g., reduced workplace re-injury rates by X% or designed a new post-offer employment testing (POET) system]. I am well-versed in OSHA regulations, workers' compensation workflows, and collaborating with case managers to ensure safe, efficient transitions for injured workers.

I am impressed by [Company Name]'s commitment to [mention a company value or specific service] and am confident that my clinical skills in manual therapy and biomechanical assessment will contribute to the continued success of your industrial rehab division.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to the possibility of discussing how my background in industrial sports medicine can benefit [Company Name] and its corporate partners.

Sincerely,
