Dear [Professor/Dr. Name],

Re: Application for Clinical Senior Lecturer in [Specialty Name] (Ref: [Job Reference Number])

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Clinical Senior Lecturer position within the [Department Name] at [University Name]. As a practicing [Specialty] with a robust background in [Primary Research Area] and a commitment to medical education, I am eager to contribute to your institution's reputation for clinical and academic excellence.

Currently, I serve as [Current Position] at [Current Institution], where I balance clinical duties with a significant research portfolio. My recent work has focused on [Briefly mention 1-2 key research achievements or grants]. I have published extensively in peer-reviewed journals such as [Journal Names], and I am confident that my research trajectory aligns with the strategic goals of the [Research Institute/Center Name].

In addition to my research, I possess a dedicated track record in teaching and curriculum development. I have successfully led modules for [Undergraduate/Postgraduate] students and have experience in [Clinical Supervision/Problem-Based Learning/Simulation]. I am particularly drawn to this role at [University Name] because of your innovative approach to [Specific Program or Initiative].

Clinically, I maintain an active practice in [Sub-specialty], ensuring that my teaching and research remain grounded in current patient care standards. I am committed to fostering interdisciplinary collaboration between the university and the [Partner NHS Trust/Hospital Group] to drive translational outcomes.

I have attached my curriculum vitae, research statement, and teaching portfolio for your review. I look forward to the possibility of discussing how my clinical expertise and academic background can benefit the faculty at [University Name].

Yours sincerely,
