Dear [Hiring Manager Name],

I am writing to express my enthusiastic interest in the Junior Web Developer position at [Company Name]. As a self-taught developer / recent graduate from [Institution Name] with a strong foundation in [List Core Skills, e.g., HTML, CSS, JavaScript], I am eager to contribute to your development team and grow within a professional environment.

During my studies and personal projects, I have developed a deep understanding of front-end/back-end principles. My most notable project, [Project Name], involved [briefly describe a key technical achievement or tool used]. This experience allowed me to practice agile methodologies and refine my problem-solving skills when tackling complex coding challenges.

Although I am at the beginning of my professional career, I bring a high level of dedication, a fast learning curve, and a passion for building clean, scalable code. I have spent the last [Time Period] mastering [Specific Language or Framework] and am particularly drawn to [Company Name] because of your recent work on [Mention a Company Project or Value].

I am eager to bring my technical curiosity and work ethic to your team. Thank you for your time and for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of discussing how my skills can support the goals of [Company Name].

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
