Dear [Hiring Manager Name],

I am writing to express my enthusiastic interest in the Junior UX Designer position at [Company Name]. As a designer who thrives at the intersection of complex data systems and user-centric simplicity, I have long admired [Company Name]'s approach to solving [specific problem the SaaS product solves].

During my [Education/Bootcamp/Internship] at [Organization Name], I focused on the nuances of B2B interface design. I recently completed a project where I [describe a specific achievement, e.g., simplified a multi-step dashboard workflow], resulting in [a specific outcome, e.g., a 20% reduction in perceived task complexity]. I understand that SaaS products require a balance between robust functionality and intuitive navigation, and I am eager to apply my skills in wireframing, rapid prototyping, and user research to help [Company Name] reduce churn and improve user onboarding.

I am particularly drawn to [Company Name] because of your recent [mention a specific feature, news, or design philosophy]. My technical proficiency in [Figma/Adobe XD] combined with my background in [mention a relevant skill like accessibility or basic HTML/CSS] allows me to collaborate effectively with engineering teams to ensure design fidelity across the development lifecycle.

I have attached my portfolio, which includes a detailed case study on [Case Study Name], highlighting my process from initial discovery to final hand-off. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my fresh perspective and dedication to data-driven design can contribute to the [Product Name] team.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
