Dear [Hiring Manager Name],

I am writing to express my interest in the Junior UX Designer position at [Company Name], as advertised on [Platform]. Having recently completed my UX Design internship at [Previous Company Name], I am eager to apply my skills in user research, wireframing, and interactive prototyping to contribute to [Company Name]'s design goals.

During my internship at [Previous Company Name], I collaborated closely with senior designers and product managers to [mention a key achievement, e.g., redesign a core feature of the mobile app]. My primary focus was on [mention specific skill, e.g., conducting usability testing and refining high-fidelity mockups based on user feedback]. This experience taught me how to balance user needs with technical constraints while maintaining a consistent design system.

In addition to my professional experience, I hold a [Degree/Certification Name] from [Institution]. I am proficient in industry-standard tools such as [Figma/Adobe XD/Sketch] and have a strong foundation in [specific methodology, e.g., Atomic Design or Agile workflows]. I am particularly drawn to [Company Name] because of your commitment to [mention a specific company value or project].

I have attached my resume and a link to my portfolio, which showcases projects ranging from initial discovery to final hand-off. I look forward to the possibility of discussing how my internship experience and design philosophy align with the vision of your design team.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
