Dear [Name/Search Committee],

Re: [Target Role Title, e.g., VP of Engineering / General Manager]

As a former CEO/Founder of [Startup Name], I have spent the last [Number] years operating at the intersection of high-stakes strategy and rapid execution. Having successfully led [Startup Name] through [Key Milestone: e.g., Series B funding / Acquisition by X / Scale to $XM ARR], I am now seeking to translate my entrepreneurial agility and owner-mindset into a leadership role within [Enterprise Company Name]'s [Department/Division].

During my tenure as CEO, I built a high-performance culture from the ground up, managed a P&L of $[Amount], and directed a team of [Number] employees. My experience bridging the gap between technical vision and commercial viability is directly applicable to the challenges [Enterprise Company Name] faces in [mention a specific enterprise challenge, e.g., digital transformation, market expansion, or product-led growth].

Key achievements I can bring to your leadership team include:

- Scalable Operations: Developed frameworks that grew [Metric] by [Percentage]% while maintaining operational efficiency.
- Strategic Partnerships: Negotiated and closed enterprise-level contracts with [Example Client Types], generating $[Amount] in revenue.
- Change Management: Navigated [Startup Name] through [Specific Pivot or Crisis], resulting in [Positive Outcome].

While my background is rooted in the startup ecosystem, my objective is to apply that same "bias for action" within a mature organizational structure. I am particularly drawn to [Enterprise Company Name] because of your recent [Specific Company Initiative or Product], and I am confident that my experience in [Niche Area] will drive significant value for your stakeholders.

I look forward to discussing how my background as a founder can support [Enterprise Company Name]'s continued growth and innovation.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
