Dear [Hiring Manager Name],

I am writing to express my formal interest in the Pastry Sous Chef position at [Patisserie Name], as advertised via [Source]. Having followed the culinary excellence of your establishment for some time, I am eager to bring my technical mastery of French pastry and my leadership experience to your esteemed kitchen team.

With [Number] years of experience specializing in haute pâtisserie, I have developed a rigorous command over traditional and contemporary techniques, including [List specific skills: e.g., viennoiserie, tempered chocolate work, entremets, and sugar artistry]. In my previous role at [Previous Establishment Name], I was responsible for overseeing production schedules, managing inventory, and ensuring that every plate met the highest standards of aesthetic and flavor profile.

My leadership philosophy aligns with the precision required in a high-volume French bakery. I take pride in mentoring junior pastry cooks, maintaining strict food safety and HACCP protocols, and collaborating with the Executive Chef to refine seasonal menus. I am particularly drawn to [Patisserie Name] because of your commitment to [mention a specific detail, e.g., sourcing local ingredients or artisanal sourdough techniques].

I have enclosed my resume and a portfolio of my work for your review. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my background in [Specific Specialty] and my dedication to the craft can contribute to the continued success of [Patisserie Name].

Sincerely,

[Your Signature]
