Dear [Mr./Ms. Surname],

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Investment Banking Analyst position within the Healthcare Group at [Bank Name], as advertised on [Platform/Source]. As a [Your Degree] candidate at [University Name] with a background in [Finance/Biology/Economics], I am eager to apply my analytical rigor and interest in life sciences to the industry-leading transactions executed by your team.

[Bank Name]'s Healthcare Group stands out to me due to its [specific recent deal, e.g., advisory role on the X acquisition] and its reputation for navigating complex regulatory landscapes across biotechnology, pharmaceuticals, and services. My academic coursework in [Relevant Subject 1] and [Relevant Subject 2] has provided me with a foundational understanding of both valuation methodologies and the scientific drivers of the healthcare sector.

During my internship at [Previous Company], I developed the technical proficiency required for the Analyst role, including building [DCF/LBO/Comparable] models and performing deep-dive market research. Specifically, I [mention a specific achievement or project]. This experience honed my ability to work under high-pressure deadlines while maintaining a high level of attention to detail—skills I am ready to bring to the Healthcare coverage team.

I am particularly drawn to the Healthcare sector because of its unique blend of defensive stability and high-growth innovation. I am confident that my quantitative skills and commitment to professional excellence align with the culture at [Bank Name]. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
